Facts

- The site is presently occupied by an office building and plaza belonging to the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago.
- The lower 10 floors of the building would have contained parking and office space.
- The Episcopal Diocese of Chicago had planned to relocate its headquarters into this building.
- The design called for an elliptical tower of aluminum and glass with a striking cut-out near the top sheltering a large terrace. The cut-out was originally designed as an open hole through the tower.
