Facts

- The building originally had a castellated parapet on the street-facing facades, punctuated by large flourishes over each of the white-bordered window tiers.
- The 2-story base was originally white, then painted red for many years before a modernization in 2003. The northeast corner and some upper window bays were long ago stripped of their white borders.
- The condo units are arranged in 4 tiers named Aurora, Galaxy, Titan, and Atlas.
