Facts

- This was the first curtain-wall structure in downtown Indianapolis.
- The American Central Life Building formerly occupied this site.
- This international-style bank building features a concave curtain wall following the curve on the northeast quadrant of Monument Circle north from Market Street to the Columbia Club Building.
- When built by American Fletcher National Bank, this building was the annex to the older Hilton Garden Inn Indianapolis Downtown, just to the east. It is now fully integrated into the Chase Center, which includes the tallest building in Indiana, the Salesforce Tower.
