Facts

- The building was officially shutdown in August 2008 by the Marion County Health Department.
- This building has struggled to attract tenants since opening, and has been essentially vacant since 2001.
- A new owner planned to renovate the apartments for new occupancy in 2004, but that never happened. The adjacent 8-story office building may be converted into residential units as well.
- This building along with 4475 Allisonville Road was finally imploded on August 28, 2011
