Facts

- This new headquarters complex for Indonesia’s largest telecommunications services company will establish a powerful presence in Jakarta’s central business district and provide an advanced work environment for this forward-looking industry leader. The new landmark tower will consolidate Telkom's staff, provide premier staff amenities, and signal the company’s continued prominence within Indonesia’s telecommunications industry. Situated on one of Jakarta’s main downtown thoroughfares, the 115,500 square meter complex comprises a protected existing building that will be updated and integrated with two new towers.
