- Illuminated logo on the facade
- Transmission antenna on roof

Facts

- Tallest hotel in Montana.
- Tallest building in Billings and in Montana from 1980 to 1985 until the completion of the First Interstate Center.
- It was declared the tallest load-bearing brick masonry building in the world by the Brick Institute of America upon completion.
- There were 2,372,982 bricks used in its construction. The bricks were made out of red clay that is found south of the city and formed in an 1869 kiln.
- The elevator buttons show 23 stories, but it actually has 22 floors because there is no 13th floor in that count.
- There is a restaurant on the 20th floor that has spectacular views of the mountains and the city.
- Built on the site of the former Smith Building, which burned to the ground in 1976.
- About 125 construction workers worked on the building.
- Two doors set into the brick on the second floor open into thin air with no balcony. The original blueprints show that the doors are for a future parking expansion.
- The hotel has hosted four U.S. Presidents.
- Features 16,000 square feet of meeting space.
