Facts

- Third National Bank merged with C&S Bank in 1920. The building was then known as Citizens and Southern National Bank building.
- In 1932, C&S Bank moved across the street to the newly-renovated J. Mack Robinson College of Business Administration.
- Third National Bank was demolished in the 1960s because it was thought to be blocking the view of Atlanta's new tallest building, State of Georgia Building. It was replaced with the 8-story Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, affiliated with Georgia State University.
